

Christian Schultheiss

Christian Schultheiss has been working in the field of European law for over 15 years. After legal studies in Germany and obtaining a Master in European law from the College of Europe in Bruges, Belgium, he started his career as a lawyer in Brussels, Belgium. He advised clients from industry on the regulation of chemicals, competition law, environmental law, internal market law and other fields of EU law.

In 2011, he joined the European Chemicals Agency as a Legal Advisor. In that capacity, he has been involved in all areas of REACH, covering registration, communication in the supply chain, data sharing, evaluation, authorisation and restrictions. He has also covered aspects of the CLP Regulation, the Prior Informed Consent Regulation and the Biocidal Products Regulation. He was a regular speaker at conferences and represented ECHA in numerous appeals before the Board of Appeal and in actions before the General Court of the European Union in Luxembourg.

In 2020, Christian joined the Litigation Office of the European Medicines Agency in Amsterdam, Netherlands, where he represents the European Medicines Agency in administrative and Court proceedings and works amongst others with transparency and fee matters.

Christian has contributed to several German publications on EU law in the areas of trade law and competition law, including the EU law commentaries Grabitz/Hilf and von der Groeben/Schwarze/Hatje.
