

Vacancy Notice

The European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) aims to be the centre of knowledge on the sustainable management of chemicals, serving a wide range of EU policies and global initiatives, for the benefit of citizens and the environment. Together with our partners, we work for the safe use of chemicals.

ECHA is launching this call for expressions of interest in order to establish a reserve list for the following temporary agent profile:

Reference number	Vacancy notice	Grade	Indicative n° on reserve list
ECHA/TA/2018/005	Director of Risk Management	AD 13	3

The closing date and time for submission of applications for this call is 19 November 2018 at noon 12.00 Helsinki time (11.00 Central European Time).

1. The job

Together with the revision of our strategy, ECHA is re-aligning its organisation to better meet future needs and challenges. The Director of Risk Management is located in the new Directorate, focusing on Risk Management, which will be established at the beginning of 2019.

The Risk Management Directorate will be in particular responsible for the risk management processes under the REACH and Biocidal Products Regulations (BPR), including authorisation, restriction and the evaluation of active substances and applications for Union Authorisation, as well as the scientific assessments to be performed by the Agency itself under the BPR. For that purpose, the Directorate and its units combine the different disciplines and competences ((eco)toxicology, exposure assessment, risk management and socio-economic analysis) required for hazard assessment, risk assessment and management of chemical substances of high concern. The Directorate works closely with other Directorates in ECHA. Within these competencies, the Director of Risk Management will liaise and maintain relations with relevant counterparts within the Agency as well as with relevant external actors, while playing a crucial role in ECHA's external stakeholder management.

The Director, reporting to the Executive Director, will be responsible for managing and providing leadership to the Risk Management Directorate and coordinating the achievement of its objectives within the framework of the overall strategic planning of the Agency. In particular, s/he will:

- Contribute actively to the Agency's strategy and policies, the (multi)annual planning, corporate identity, stakeholder engagement, overall governance and decision-making;
- Liaise and maintain relations with the European Institutions (Commission, Parliament, Council and Court of Auditors) and other European Agencies on matters within the Directorate's field of competency;
- Act as a member of the senior management team of the Agency and ensure seamless cooperation and communication with other Directors and Directorates; promote customer orientation both towards internal and external stakeholders of the Directorate;
- Ensure that the human, financial and corporate services resources of the Directorate are used in the most effective and efficient way to promote cost awareness and efficiency development initiatives across the Agency;
- Coordinate the work programming at Directorate level, setting objectives and determining priorities within the overall strategic planning framework of the Agency;
- Coordinate the work of the Units comprising the Directorate, motivating and supporting middle managers in attaining the objectives set and realising their potential and that of their staff;
- Ensure the achievement of the Directorate's objectives according to required deadlines and quality standards, and monitor, evaluate and regularly report on progress;
- Determine the staffing requirements of the Directorate, participate in the selection of personnel and ensure sound and continuous professional development including learning activities, knowledge sharing and mobility of staff;
- Ensure sound management of the financial resources of the Directorate in accordance with the financial regulation of the Agency, coordinate budget forecasting and monitoring of budget execution, and ensure timely procurement of necessary services in accordance with public procurement procedures;
- Determine the working procedures of the Directorate in line with the Agency's Quality Management System and, in coordination with the Executive Director, the delegation of responsibilities within it and their compliance;
- Handle external requests for information relevant to the work of the Directorate, including requests from other European Institutions, European Commission services, International Bodies, Member States and the general public.
