

Vacancy Notice

The European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) is the driving force among regulatory authorities in implementing the EU's ground-breaking chemicals legislation for the benefit of human health and the environment as well as for innovation and competitiveness. ECHA helps companies to comply with the legislation, advances the safe use of chemicals, provides information on chemicals and addresses chemicals of concern.

The European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) is launching this call for expressions of interest in order to establish a reserve list for the following temporary agent profile:

Reference number	Vacancy notice	Grade	Indicative n° on reserve list
ECHA/TA/2019/003	Scientific Officer	AD 6	10

The closing date and time for submission of applications for this call is 06 May 2019 at noon 12.00 Helsinki time (11.00 Central European Time).

1. The Job

The Scientific Officer will work in the Directorate of Hazard Assessment. S/he will work on one or more of the areas covering human health or environmental aspects relating to the harmonising of the classification and labelling of hazardous substances under the CLP Regulation, to the evaluation processes under the REACH Regulation, or the development of scientific opinions on derived no-effect levels (DNELs) and the setting of occupational exposure limits (OELs) for chemical substances.

In particular, depending on his/her background/profile, s/he will be primarily responsible for the following tasks:

- Examination of the summaries and reports of standard regulatory (eco)toxicology studies (in vivo and in vitro), existing studies and literature data;
- Examination of alternative methodologies (e.g. read-across, QSARs or the weight of evidence approach) to assess the adequacy of the information and the (eco)toxicological properties of substances;
- Examination and verification of the human health hazard and environmental hazard profile of chemical substances (e.g. in relation to the classification and the SVHC - criteria);
- Evaluation of integrated assessment and testing strategies in the regulatory context;
- Contribute to the development of scientific opinions on derived no-effect levels (DNELs) and the setting of occupational exposure limits (OELs) for chemical substances;

- Carry out scientific/technical tasks related to the process of harmonised classification and labelling;
- Provide scientific support to Committee on Risk assessment (RAC) and the Member State Committee (MSC);
- Contribute to further developing scientific and administrative (IT) tools/projects supporting these processes;
- Identify the need and develop guidance on technical and scientific issues.

2. Eligibility criteria

The selection procedure is open to applicants who satisfy the following eligibility criteria, on the closing date for application:

2.1. General requirements

The applicant must:

- Be a national of a Member State of the European Union, or a national of the European Economic Area (Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway)¹;
- Enjoy the full rights as a citizen;
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the laws concerning military service;
- Produce the appropriate character references as to the suitability for the performance of the duties²;
- Be physically fit to perform the duties³;
- Have a thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the European Union⁴ and a satisfactory knowledge of another such language to the extent necessary to perform your duties;
- Be able to communicate well in English as this is the working language of ECHA;

2.2. Qualifications

Successful completion of a full course of university studies attested by a degree, where the normal duration of university education is three (3) years or more.

Only qualifications issued by EU Member State authorities or EEA authorities and qualifications recognized as equivalent by the relevant EU or EEA Member State authorities will be accepted.

2.3. Professional experience

To qualify for this profile, you must have at the closing date for applications a total professional experience⁶ of at least three (3) years acquired after achieving the minimum requirements stated out in 2.2. At least one (1) year of your total professional experience must be relevant professional experience⁷ in the fields listed in section 1.

3. Selection criteria

If you meet the eligibility criteria set out in section 2, you will be assessed on the basis of the following selection criteria. The candidates who are judged to be the most suitable on the basis of the selection criteria will be invited to an interview.

- Your academic and professional qualifications and their relevance to the main areas of work listed in section 1. Preference will be given to qualifications obtained in the following fields:
 - Life sciences with further specialisation in Toxicology, in particular in the fields of reproductive toxicity, endocrine mode of action, mutagenicity, (developmental) immuno-toxicity, (developmental) neurotoxicity;
 - Life sciences with further specialisation in Ecotoxicology, in particular in hands on experience with ecotoxicology tests (including PBT/vPvB-related parameters), assessment of endocrine mode of action for environmental compartments;
 - Epidemiology.
- Your professional experience in the range of fields covered, the type and level of work done and its relevance to the areas of work listed in section 1.

The following will be considered as assets:

- Documented studies in application of methodologies and approaches in alternatives to animal testing, such as read-across and grouping (of substances) in regulatory risk assessment;
- Research experience in conducting (eco)toxicology studies or epidemiology studies;

⁶ Only appropriate professional experience acquired after achieving the minimum qualification stated in 2.2 shall be considered. Where additional periods of training and study are accompanied by periods of professional activity, only the latter shall be considered as professional experience. Compulsory military service or equivalent civilian service accomplished after the achieving the minimum qualification stated in 2.2. shall be taken into consideration. Professional activities pursued on a part-time basis shall be calculated pro rata, on the basis of the percentage of full-time hours worked. A given period may be counted only once.

⁷ Relevant experience should be described in your application.

- Professional experience in developing scientific IT tools and databases in relation to chemical hazards;
- Work experience gained in a similar multicultural environment. Preference will be given to work experience abroad.

The academic and professional qualifications, professional experience and knowledge and experience considered as an asset must be described as precisely as possible in your application.

4. Interview and written test

If selected for interview, you will be assessed on the basis of the following criteria:

- Knowledge and understanding in your areas of experience that are most relevant to the tasks set out in section 1;
- Understanding of the role of ECHA, in relation to the REACH, CLP, Biocides and PIC legislations;
- Ability to communicate and liaise effectively with internal and external stakeholders⁸;
- Capacity to rapidly grasp the scientific and/or policy sensitivity of the activities of the Agency⁸;
- Ability to work effectively in a multidisciplinary team in a multicultural and multilingual environment⁸;
- Good command of spoken and written English.

Your ability to communicate in written English, and the knowledge, skills and competencies related to the job will be also assessed by written tests.

For native English speakers, your ability to communicate in your second EU language will be tested during the interview. As this forms part of the general requirements stated under section 2.1 above, any failure in proving the satisfactory level of your second EU language would lead to your exclusion from the selection.

5. Placement on the reserve list

If you are judged to be among the most suitable candidates, on the basis of the criteria listed in sections 2, 3 and 4, you will be placed on the reserve list. The reserve list will be valid for a period of two years.

It should be noted that inclusion on the reserve lists does not imply any entitlement of employment in the Agency.

⁸ You can read more about the general competencies in place in ECHA through the following link: http://echa.europa.eu/documents/10162/13602/echa_staff_competencies_en.pdf

6. Other information

Before applying, you should carefully read the Guide of Applicants⁹ published on ECHA Website. This guide is an integral part of the Vacancy Notice and will help you to understand the rules governing the procedure and how to apply.

Successful applicants may be offered an employment contract for five years as a temporary agent. This contract may be renewed for a definite period. If renewed for a second time, the contract becomes indefinite. If the successful applicant from the external selection procedure is already a member of temporary staff 2(f) in the relevant function group or another function group, the Agency shall offer the person, in writing, the opportunity to be assigned to the post by means of mobility under the provisions of Article 6(2)¹⁰ or, subject to the establishment plan availabilities, Article 10⁸ respectively, if the person prefers to ensure continuity of contracts.

The minimum number of years of professional experience required after the award of the qualification certifying the completion of the level of studies required as a condition of eligibility for any selection procedure is as follows:

Grade of engagement	Number of years of professional experience

¹⁰ Implementing rules on the procedure governing the engagement and use of temporary staff under Article 2(f) of the CEOS:
http://echa.europa.eu/documents/10162/21844190/mb_27_2015_final_annex_1c_use_and_engagement_temporary_agents_en.pdf

The successful applicant will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make an annual declaration with respect to any interests which might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence. Moreover, before recruiting a member of staff, ECHA's Executive Director will examine whether the applicant has any personal interest which may impair his/her independence or any other conflict of interest. To that end, the applicant, using a specific form, shall inform the Executive Director of any actual or potential conflict of interest. Applicants must confirm their willingness to do so in their application.

The successful candidate will be recruited as a Temporary Agent Grade AD 6 with the basic monthly salary starting from € 5.416,58, subject to an annual review of remuneration provided for in Article 65(1) of the Staff Regulations. ECHA offers, in addition to the basic salary, a range of benefits which include allowances, such as a household allowance, an expatriation allowance (16% of the basic salary) and a dependant child allowance, as well as a welfare package including pension scheme, medical and accident coverage. For more information on the salary and on the allowances, please visit our website at: <http://www.echa.europa.eu/about-us/jobs/what-we-offer>.
