

Curriculum Vitae

Tatjana Kolesnikova

Main expertise in summary

She has worked at the Ministry of the Environment since 2014. She is the leading expert for chemicals management. Before her current position she has been working at Czech Environmental Information Agency her main responsibilities included preparation of opinions of applications for the integrated permission and their amendments, participation in inspections of the facilities pursuant to legislations. BAT application and evaluation in chemistry, technical protection of the environment.

Professional experience

Principal occupational skills covered the theory of chemical-technological processes; the general chemical technology; processes and devices of chemical technology; organic, analytical and physical chemistry; technologies of producing of ammonia, carbamide, mineral fertilizers, salts, sulfuric acid, soda and alkalis; bases of designing of chemical devices, the equipment of branch and a basis of designing of the enterprises. Key role in approximation, implementation and enforcement of the national legislation.

Education

Master Degree (Ing.), Institute of Chemical Technology

Other relevant information

Speaks Czech, Russian, Ukraine and English. Ability to assimilate in multicultural atmosphere gained during working experience abroad. Experiences with organizing and coordinating environmental and cultural activities and projects.
