

Curriculum Vitae

(Alexander Roeske)

Main expertise in summary

Alexander Roeske is responsible for German and European chemicals policy at the IGBCE. As a trade union, it represents the interests of workers in the chemical industry, which is the third largest industrial sector in Germany.

Professional experience

Since May 2016, employed by the IGBCE with different emphases on employee representation.

Education

2015 - Master of Arts in Atlantic Studies of History, Culture and Society - University of Hanover, Germany

Other relevant information

Date 18/02/2022