

Curriculum Vitae

(Steinunn Fjóra Sigurðardóttir)

Main expertise in summary

Director General at the Department of Environment and Spatial Planning in the Ministry for the Environment and Natural Resources in Iceland. Chemicals management and chemicals policy is one of the categories the Department is responsible for.

Professional experience

In the Ministry for the Environment and Natural Resources in Iceland since 2008. Director General at the Department of Environment and Spatial Planning since 2013 and responsible for the work in the Department which involves f.ex. implementation of the relevant EU legislation in the field of chemicals, circular economy, waste and water, cooperation with the relevant authorities e.g. concerning enforcement of the legislation, international cooperation etc.
Deputy at the District Commissioner's office in Selfoss, Iceland, 2000-2008.

Education

Master's degree in Law from the University of Iceland 1999.
Various courses, f.ex. in environmental and administrative matters and legislation.

Other relevant information

Mother tongue Icelandic. Fluent in English.

14 December 2020