Thank you for sharing your feedback today

We've taken note of where further support is needed

Next steps

- Review Programme
 - Member States to step-up, with support of ECHA
 - action plan for discussion at CA meeting in November
- Endocrine disruptors
 - training and practical instructions in the pipeline
- Biocidal product families
 - automated supporting tool available
- Functioning
 - Commission report on the functioning of the BPR regulation in 2021 (MS reports in 2020)

Risk assessment tools – work continues

- EUSES (European Union System for the Evaluation of Substances)
 - Updated for biocides 1 October 2019
 - Available now on ECHA's website
- We are further integrating EUSES into a central tool to further harmonise risk assessment for REACH and biocides
